

The WRP: Supplying Federal Workforce Talent

The Workforce Recruitment Program (WRP) is a free talent database that helps federal agencies connect with qualified candidates with disabilities for all jobs. Users can find candidates with the specific skills they need to fill federal positions paid for by their agencies.

Who participates in the WRP?

Candidates in the WRP database are students and recent graduates with disabilities who are available for internships, temporary or permanent employment in the Federal Government. Candidates represent a wide range of academic and professional backgrounds. All candidates are eligible for federal hiring under the Schedule A hiring authority.

The 2025 WRP database includes 4,000 students and recent graduates from 530 accredited institutions. Collectively, these individuals represent:

545
Veterans

1280
IT-based Majors

385
Engineers

180
Accountants

400
Health Care Professionals

380
HR/Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Professionals

1005
Graduate Students

65
Law School Students

115
MBAs

115
Doctoral Candidates

What benefits does the WRP offer me?

Streamline your searches for candidates by filtering results.

Access and save relevant candidate information easily.

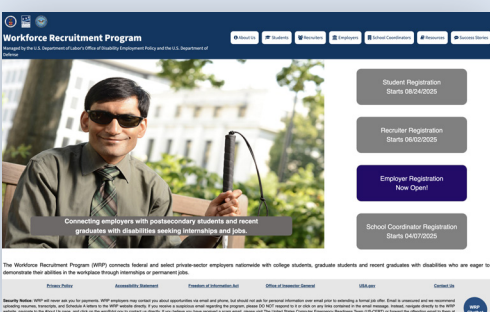

Use the Schedule A hiring authority to hire directly without having to publicly post the position.

Support disability employment in the federal workforce.

How can I start using the WRP today?

Getting started is easy!

Go to WRP.gov and click the Employer registration button on the right. Once your registration is approved, you will receive login instructions by email from prodwrp@servicenowservices.com.

Federal employees: register for an account at WRP.gov! For questions and assistance, email wrp@dol.gov.